Fellow Huskies,

Thank you for participating in the Storrs Undergraduate Student Government Spring 2024 Elections. I am pleased to present the results of this competitive election, and I would like to congratulate Lorien Touponse and Arunima Chaturvedi as USG's next President and Vice President team. I wish you both the best of luck in these roles for the upcoming year.

Also included are the results of the Chief Diversity Officer, Comptroller, and Senate races. Congratulations to CDO Tae'Niajha Pullen and Comptroller-Elect Sydney Whittaker for their respective victories and to the new Senator-Elects from the Academic and Multicultural and Diversity constituencies.

For those who did not win their seats, I sincerely hope you continue to support the undergraduate student body in whatever avenues you are able. Don't stop trying to get involved. I encourage undergraduate students to join any of USG's four Advocacy Committees, which are a low-commitment, easy way for any student to get involved. More information about committee topics and times can be found at usg.uconn.edu/committees and instagram.com/usguconn.

All residential Senate seats will be up for election in the fall of 2024.

The attached document contains specific vote counts and the winners of each election. You will notice that two of the vote counts are in red. These numbers represent the vote count post-penalty. In each case, the parties admitted liability and received a 30-vote penalty.

All the best,

Leo Gold
Chief Justice
